

ELECTIONS 2018: SEEKING FISCAL SOLUTIONS

An AARP Illinois, NPR Illinois, and Illinois Issues Forum

On October 2, 2018, join AARP Illinois and Chicagoland leaders for a Town Hall meeting in Chicago's Bronzeville Neighborhood, to share your story on how the fiscal crisis is impacting your community.

Moderated by: Dometi Pongo, journalist and media personality

Panelists:

- FM Supreme: Global youth activist who has either organized or participated in dozens of protest and/or marches across the country.
- Mary Mitchell: Award-winning journalist for the Chicago Sun-Times has been entrenched in Chicago's media landscape for over 4 decades.
- Jim Allen: Chicago Board of Election Commissioners spokesman has seen every possible scenario in regards to the election process in Cook County for several decades.

Make sure your voice is heard! Stand up and share how Illinois' prolonged fiscal crisis is impacting your life! Find out what challenges lie ahead for all Illinois residents.

The event is FREE and dinner will be served, but YOU MUST REGISTER TO ATTEND.

There will be a Facebook Live program from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. with a live panel discussion and audience Q&A immediately following. The program will be audio-and video-recorded and broadcast live by NPR Illinois.
